VOTING PROCEDURES

Who is entitled to vote?

Shareholders owning Bank common stock on February 28, 2018 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders or any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Each shareholder has one vote per share on all matters to be voted on. On February 28, 2018 there were 2,808,202 shares of common stock outstanding.

On what am I voting?

At the meeting, you will be asked to:

- elect three Directors to Class I for three-year terms expiring in 2021;
- ratify the selection of BDO USA, LLP as the Bank's independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2018; and
- attend to any other business properly presented at the meeting.

How does the Board of Directors recommend I vote on the proposals?

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the election of each of the three nominees as Directors to Class I and FOR the ratification of the selection of BDO USA, LLP as the Bank's independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2018.

How do I vote?

Sign and date each proxy form you receive and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided. If you sign your proxy form, but do not mark your choices, your proxy will be voted FOR the election of the three persons nominated for election as Directors to Class I and FOR the ratification of the selection of BDO USA, LLP as the Bank's independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2018.

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised. To do so, you must give written notice of revocation to the Secretary, York Traditions Bank, 226 Pauline Drive, P.O. Box 3658, York, Pennsylvania 17402, submit another properly signed proxy with a more recent date, or vote in person at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders after giving written notice to the Secretary of the Bank.

What is a quorum?

A "quorum" is the presence at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares. There must be a quorum for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held. Abstentions are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but are not considered a vote cast under Pennsylvania law. Brokers holding shares in street name for their customers generally are not entitled to vote on certain matters unless they receive voting instructions from their customers. Such shares for which brokers have not received voting instructions from their customers are called "broker non-votes." Under Pennsylvania law, broker non-votes will be counted to determine if a quorum is present with respect to any matter to be voted upon by shareholders at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders only if such shares have been voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders on another matter other than a procedural motion.

What vote is required to approve each item on the agenda?

The three nominees for election as Directors to Class I receiving the highest number of votes will be elected to the Board of Directors.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, in person or by proxy, is required to ratify the selection of BDO USA, LLP as the Bank's independent auditors.

Who will count the vote?

The Judges of Election appointed by the Board of Directors will count the votes cast in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

How are proxies being solicited?

In addition to solicitation by mail, the officers, Directors and employees of the Bank may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies by telephone or personal interview. Brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of common stock held by such persons and will be reimbursed by the Bank for their expenses. The cost of soliciting proxies for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders will be borne by the Bank.

Each position, including those of the executive officers, is placed into a salary grade. Recommended changes to compensation are based on the market data and individual performance.

Stock based incentives and bank-wide cash bonus payouts are based on achievement of annual objectives and bottom line financial performance. Mr. Kochenour does not participate in discussions concerning his personal compensation.

Governance Committee. The Governance Committee was established in 2016. Committee members were: Elizabeth F. Carson (chairwoman), John D. Brown, Wanda D. Filer and Michael E. Kochenour. The Bank's Board of Directors nominates individuals to be elected as Directors. The nominating shareholder must include in the proposal certain information listed in Article II, Section 4 of the Bylaws. To obtain a copy of the Bank's Bylaws, shareholders should write to John D. Blecher, Secretary, York Traditions Bank, 226 Pauline Drive, P.O. Box 3658 York, Pennsylvania 17402.

Compensation of the Board of Directors

2002 Directors' Compensation Plan. The 2002 Directors' Compensation Plan (the "2002 Directors' Plan") expired in 2012 and no additional grants may be awarded under such plan.

Pursuant to the 2002 Directors' Plan, each of the initial Directors who was not an employee of the Bank was granted an option to purchase 1,250 shares of common stock upon their appointment to the Board. Each such option vested over a three-year period. Additionally, as annual compensation for serving on the Board of Directors, each non-employee Director was granted an option to purchase 500 shares of common stock at an exercise price of not less than the fair market value of Bank common stock on the date of grant. To be entitled to receive this grant, the Director was required to attend a minimum of 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors held since the last Annual Meeting of Shareholders and ending on the date of the most recent Annual Meeting of Shareholders. In any year following the first year in which the Bank's audited year-end financial statements reflected net income for the year, a Director who was entitled to receive options as annual compensation was entitled to elect to receive $5,000 cash in lieu of such options.

2012 Non-Employee Directors Stock Incentive Plan. On June 21, 2012, the Board of Directors adopted the 2012 Non-Employee Directors Stock Incentive Plan (“2012 Directors’ Plan”) to succeed the expired 2002 Directors’ Plan. The 2012 Directors’ Plan authorizes the grant of nonqualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and deferred stock units. The Board is authorized to issue up to 50,000 shares of common stock under the plan.

Under the 2012 Directors’ Plan, as in effect for periods prior to the period running from the 2016 Annual Meeting of Shareholders through the 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, in addition to permitting the discretionary grant of awards, the plan set forth certain terms on which the payment of certain minimum compensation amounts to each non-employee Director was required. Such provisions, which are commonly found in stand-alone non-employee director compensation programs, rendered the 2012 Directors’ Plan cumbersome to administer because an amendment to the plan was required whenever the Board of Directors determined it advisable or appropriate to modify the form, amount, or the terms on which non-employee Directors should receive compensation for discharging their duties as Board members.

Therefore, in August 2016, the Board of Directors amended the 2012 Directors Plan to eliminate the provisions setting forth the required minimum compensation of non-employee Directors.

In connection with this amendment, the Board of Directors established a Non-Employee Director Compensation Program, which is administered by the Compensation Committee and is described below.

Non-Employee Director Compensation Program. Under the Non-Employee Director Compensation Program, compensation owing to a non-employee Director is payable immediately following the annual meeting of shareholders of the Bank for services rendered as a Director during the program year. Employee Directors and Directors who are a party to a consulting agreement with the Bank are not eligible to participate in the program.

In accordance with the program as in effect for the current program year, immediately following the 2018 Annual Meeting, each non-employee Director shall receive the following as compensation for their service period commencing with the 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders through the 2018 Annual Meeting of Shareholders:

- Board Member. $5,000 annual retainer and $500 per board meeting attended during program year;
- Committee Chair. $3,000 annual retainer for Audit Committee chair and $1,000 annual retainer for all other committee chairs; and
- Committee Member. $3,000 annual retainer for Loan Committee members and $1,000 annual retainer for all other committee members.

Non-employee Directors may elect to receive cash in lieu of restricted stock for any compensation payable under the Non-Employee Director Compensation Program.

The Bylaws further provide for three classes of Directors with staggered three-year terms of office. The terms of the classes expire at successive Annual Meetings of Shareholders. In accordance with the Bank's Bylaws, the current term of office of Directors of Class I will expire at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held in 2018 and when their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. At each Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the successors to the class of Directors whose terms will then expire will be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the third succeeding Annual Meeting of Shareholders and when their successors are duly elected and qualified.

The Board of Directors is proposing the following three nominees for election as Class I Directors at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, to serve until the 2021 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. The three nominees listed below are the current Class I Directors, and they have consented to serve the three-year term as a Director, if re-elected.

John M. Polli
William J. Shorb
Eugene J. Draganosky

Each of the nominees meets the qualifications for a Director.

Although the Bank does not anticipate that any of the nominees above will be unwilling or unable to stand for election, in the event of such an occurrence, proxies may be voted for a substitute designated by the Board of Directors. Further, if a Director should be unavailable to serve for any reason, a majority of the Board of Directors then in office may select someone to fill the vacancy until the expiration of the term of the class of Directors to which he or she was appointed.

The proxy holders intend to vote their proxies FOR the election of the nominees named above, unless you indicate on the proxy that your vote should be withheld from any or all of them.

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the election of the above-named nominees for Class I Directors.
